

Camp Promise is here

We are super excited that camp is here. Volunteers have come from PA, NJ and SC as well as locally. Here's a day by day prayer guide for you.

Sunday June 23: Orientation begins at 3 pm local time. Pray the staff would get to know each other, enjoy one another, and begin to feel like a cohesive team.

Monday June 24: Full day of orientation. Pray for those first time volunteers, that they would absorb what is being taught and that their fears would turn to confidence. Pray also that the staff would take the time to connect with God.

Tuesday June 25: Campers for the 1st week of camp come. Pray for safety in travel, we have campers coming from as far as 12 hours away. Pray for the campers quick adjustment to camp and their counselors. Pray also for the nurses as they get all the campers needs organized for the week.

Wednesday June 26: Bible class begins. Two of the three Bible teachers are new to teaching people with special needs. Pray for wisdom and clarity as they teach. Pray also for soft hearts for the gospel as we teach the gospel in chapel and Bible Class.

Thursday, June 27: Pray for the counselors as they daily work alongside the campers. Pray for opportunities to display the gospel in words and deeds.

Friday, June 28: Typically everyone is tired by Friday, pray for extra energy and the ability to serve with a glad heart. Pray for the campers as they can get fatigued and become frustrated with being away from home.

Saturday, June 29: Today we have our carnival and then the parents come. Pray for a wonderful last day and a good transition for the campers as they return home.

Sunday, June 30: Pray for the staff, for refreshment both spiritually and physically. Pray they would be safe as they do various activities.

Monday, July 1: There will be a transition of staff, but most will be the same pray the "newbies" would quickly be part of the team and be excited for their week of ministry. Pray for any adjustment Jeff or Beth need to make to schedules or activities.

Tuesday, July 2: Campers come for week 2. Pray for a safe trip to camp and a great transition for campers and counselors.

Wednesday, July 3: Pray for clarity and wisdom for the Bible teachers and me as the chapel speaker. Again this week we have two new teachers, pray for their classes.

Thursday, July 4: Pray for the counselors that they would have opportunity to show the gospel through words and deeds. Pray for safety for the electives and other activities of camp.

Friday, July 5: Pray for energy for both campers and counselors. Help everyone to grow in their relationships with God.

Saturday, July 6: Camp is over. Pray for safety for parents, caregivers, campers and counselors as they return home. Praise God for his faithfulness and the wonderful opportunity to serve him.

Thank you for your faithful prayers. You can also remember to pray for the leadership, Jeff & Emmy Ort and myself. Pray for the cooks and nurses as they do the very important but often unseen jobs. Pray for soft hearts toward the gospel and clear presentations of the gospel.

Remember to check out facebook on "Camp Promise Ministries" or on Instagram at "camppromiseministries."