

Camp Promise – July 5, 2019

Mark Bickel

Yesterday was got to celebrate the 4th of July at camp! We celebrated at night with popper for all the campers and then with Jim Henry firing off simple, quiet fireworks while we all sat on the hill watching. The campers definitely enjoyed it.

Today one of the highlights was are cabin costume party, where everyone got to dress up and preform some simple skits by cabin. Some photos on the next page. I also got to see some of the painting the campers have been working on this week, which are wonderful. A few are pictured as well on the next pages.

Tomorrow is out closing program, which I will write more about then. But first, below is a photo of the entire team from Grace (including the Wiegand's and Orts who are missionaries we support in Montana), and a photo of our family from the fourth

1st Page – Cabin Costume Party. 2nd Page – 4th of July and Human Candyland Game
This Page – Paintings by campers as part of Canvas Paining elective